The Company Secretary monitors compliance of the Company with the Constitution, this Charter and its statutory obligations and may be called upon to provide advice to, or procure advice for, the Board on various matters including, but not limited to, risk management, corporate ethics, governance, compliance and insurance.
- b) The Company Secretary works in conjunction with the Chair to manage the smooth functioning of the Board by managing Board processes and ensuring Board meetings are properly held and called and appropriate records are maintained.
- c) The Company Secretary attends the meetings of the Board but is not entitled to vote.

8. Board Meetings

- a) The Board Meeting is a fundamental governance process. It is the decision-making forum for the Board. It is critical as it is the main opportunity for Directors to:
 - 1. obtain and exchange information with the CEO;
 - 2. obtain and exchange information with each other;
 - 3. review the reports and recommendations of the Committees; and
 - 4. make decisions.
- b) The Board Meeting agenda is important as it shapes the information flow and subsequent discussion.

8.1 Meeting Frequency

- a) Unless otherwise agreed, the Board will meet at least five times each financial year as per the Constitution.

8.2 Attendance at Board meetings

- a) Unless a leave of absence has been approved by the Chair (or in the case of a proposed leave of absence of the Chair, approved by the Deputy Chair), Board members must attend at least three Board meetings each year. Failure to do so may result in the Director being asked to leave the Board. Removal of a Director will be at the recommendation of the Chair of the Board.

- a) Unless otherwise provided in the Constitution, the quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors as a Board meeting shall be at least 50.1% of the Directors entitled to attend and vote.

8.4 Voting

A majority of votes by Directors present and entitled to vote will decide questions arising at Board meetings or by way of circular resolution. Each Director shall have one vote on every occasion. This includes the Chair who shall have a deliberative vote like every other Director. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chair will not have a casting (nor second) vote.

8.5 Director Protection

- a) As a general rule, a Director has two key areas of protection - the right to information and the ability to insure against specific risks of being a Director. Therefore, as a matter of policy, the following measures of Board member protection will apply:

8.5.1 Information-seeking protocol

- a) Directors will adhere to the following protocol when seeking information:
 - 1. approach the CEO to request the required information;
 - 2. if the information is not forthcoming, approach the Chair;
 - 3. if the information is still not forthcoming, write a letter to all Board members and the CEO detailing the information required, the purpose of the information, and who the Director intends to approach in order to obtain the information.
- b) When considering an application from a Director to access information, other than Board papers, the party considering the application may ask the Director for the reason for their request to establish that the information is required for organisational (and not personal) reasons. In the normal course, information obtained by a Director in the course of the Director's duties should be made available to all Directors.

8.5.2 Access

- a) The Board shall have unlimited access to the external and internal auditors.
- b) Directors sign a Deed of Access, Insurance and Indemnity that enables access to all Board papers as well as financial and operational information in the custody of the Company during the specified access period.
- c) The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) also provides Directors with the right to inspect the Company's books.
- d) The Directors have complete and open access to the Company's management following consultation with the Chair and CEO. The Board collectively, and each Director, has the right to seek information from the Company Secretary to assist them to carry out their responsibilities.

8.5.3 Independent advice

- a) The Board has the authority to consult independent experts where they consider it necessary to carry out their duties. Any costs incurred as a result of the Board consulting an independent expert will be borne by Cancer Council Queensland; however, no Director is authorised to commit the organisation to the expenditure of monies on professional advice until first obtaining the approval of the Chair to do so. In the event the Chair is unwilling or unable to provide approval, or that the cost of the professional advice will exceed $10,000, then the approval of the Board must be sought and obtained.
- b) Where the Chair is seeking professional advice, which will incur any level of expenditure, then the Chair must first seek and obtain approval from the Board for that expenditure.
- c) Prior to seeking professional advice, a Director must inform the Chair about the nature of the opinion or information sought, the reason for the advice, the terms of reference for the advice and the estimated cost of the advice. Where more than one Director is seeking advice about a single issue, the Chair will endeavour to coordinate the provision of the advice. The Board as a whole must be the recipient of such advice.

9. Insurance

- a) Directors are covered under a Directors and Officers insurance policy.

10. Bribes, Gifts, Benefits, Travel and Hospitality

- a) Directors and committee members must not:
 - 1. seek or accept a bribe or other improper inducement;
 - 2. use their official position to gain advantage or to improperly influence fellow Directors or employees in the performance of their professional duties for the purpose of private gain or personal benefit;
 - 3. accept gifts, services for personal advantage;
 - 4. accept travel or hospitality benefits, except where such benefits may also be to the benefit of the Company, e.g. hospitality at a corporate networking event or travel to a conference that is relevant to their official position; nor
 - 5. by virtue of their official positions accept or acquire a personal profit or advantage of a personal material value (except of a token nature), other than permitted by this Charter, now or in the future.

11. Code of Conduct

- a) The Company has adopted a separate Code of Conduct (a copy of which is available on request) which sets out the standard which the Board, management and other employees of the Company are to comply with when dealing with each other and the broader community. It is a statement of principles and responsibilities with respect to both its internal dealings with employees and consultants, and external dealings with stakeholders and the community at large. This code is supported by organisational, operational policies and guidelines.

12. Committees, Task Groups and Advisory Groups

- a) The Board delegates specific responsibilities and activities to Committees in order to assist the Board in the enactment of its duties. The role of Committees is to fulfil their responsibilities and make recommendations to the Board as appropriate. The Committees are to assist the Board in the efficient discharge of its duties. The Committees do not take on the responsibilities of the Board; they ensure that the Board is adequately informed and supported so that the Board uses its time and energy most effectively.
- b) Advisory Groups are created by the Board (or on recommendation of a Committee) to provide specialist advice on a technical or complex area of expertise. Task Groups are bodies that provide specific activity or task support to Committees and assist them in fulfilling their obligations to the Board.
- c) One of the functions of the Board is to form and monitor any Committees and Advisory Groups established to provide advice on various areas in relation to the strategic direction and operations of the Company.
- d) Without limiting the power of the Board to make such Committees as it desires, the Board has established the following Committees:
 - 1. Audit and Risk Management Committee;
 - 2. Medical and Scientific Committee;
 - 3. People and Culture Committee; and
 - 4. Property Advisory Committee.
- e) The composition, role and functions of the Committees are set out in their respective Charters (which are annexed to this Charter). All members of all Committees will be appointed by the Board. An allocated Director is required to sit as the Chair of each Committee.
- f) The Board or a Committee may appoint to an Advisory Group such persons as it chooses. Advisory Groups act in accordance with direction or instruction from either the Board or the Committee that has established the Group.
- g) The Board may from time to time create additional Committees and Advisory Groups to assist the Board in the discharge of its duties in managing the affairs of the Company. These Committees and Advisory Groups will be governed by the terms of this Charter.

13. Orientation and Training for Directors

- a) An orientation meeting for new Directors will be scheduled. This meeting will provide an overview of CCQ's business activities, organisational structure, corporate priorities and policies. The Chief Executive Officer (or the CEO's delegate) is responsible for organising such meetings.
- b) Directors are expected to undertake training relevant to their duties as members of the Board. Assistance is available on request through the Chair who will discuss the training requirement with the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer (or the CEO's delegate) is responsible for maintaining an accurate record of training attended by Directors.

14. Delegation of Authority

- a) The Board decides what matters are to be delegated either to Committees, the CEO, CCQ management or CCQ employees. Individual Directors have no individual authority to participate in day-to-day management, including making any representations or agreements with suppliers, customers, employees or other parties or organisations. The exception to this principle occurs where the Board through resolution explicitly delegates an authority to the Director individually. Committees and their members require specific delegations from the Board as a whole.
- b) In general, the Board retains all powers and authorities required to carry out CCQ's business effectively and efficiently, except where specific authority is delegated to Committees or CCQ employees.
- c) To facilitate the day-to-day operations of the Company the Board has delegated its authority to the Committees, the CEO and certain CCQ employees as specified in the Delegation of Authority Policy. Any changes or amendments to these delegations must be approved by the Board.
- d) Although the Board has delegated its authority as above, the following matters can only be approved by the Board:
 - 1. authority to affix the company seal;
 - 2. approval of the annual budget;
 - 3. appointment of external and internal auditors;
 - 4. approval of CCQ's Strategic Plan;
 - 5. approval of the annual financial statements;
 - 6. approval of CCQ's policies and material amendments to those policies;
 - 7. appointment of the CEO and the Company Secretary.

See separate Delegation of Authority Policy

15. Review of Charter

- a) This Charter is to be reviewed as and when needed, but at least once every three years, by the Board to ensure it remains consistent with the Board's authority, objectives and responsibilities. Changes to this Charter must be approved by the Board.
